

DEDICATION

To Mrs. Michie, whose gracious smile and warm friendly greetings have brightened the halls of Carver High School for many years, we, the class of 1964, dedicate this yearbook.

To the class of 1964:

I am sure that you will encounter problems along the way. The experiences you have had at Carver were designed to help you solve many of them. Remember, to do your best in all of your future undertaking. Then you will not have to tell people how good you are or how much you know, for what and how you act will speak for you.

"Let your light so shine that men may see your good works."

Best wishes,

HARVEY A. FLESHMON Principal.

THE CLASS HISTORY

In 1959, we, the students of the 1963-64 graduating class of Carver High, started out as frightened, but excited eighth graders. At that time Carver seemed like a gigantic place, but as the years progressed, it seemed more and more like a second home. Since we were only beginners at that time, our activities were very limited. Our eighth grade sponsors were Mr. Poole, Mr. Crossling, Mrs. Hubb, Miss Perkins, Mr. Billups, and Miss Huobard.

Our ninth and tenth grades went by very rapidly. Of course we began thinking seriously about our great junior year, for we were to sponsor the "Junior-Senior Prom." These were indeed two hard-working years. We began sponsoring different activities which we felt were of interest to the student body and at the same time were beneficial to us. We had raffles, sold candy, sponsored trips for our students with the ball teams, and sold newspapers. Our ninth grade sponsors were Mr. Crossling, Mrs. Rempson, Mrs. Michie, Miss Perkings, and Mrs. Hubb. Our tenth grade sponsors were Mrs. Michie, Mrs. Rempson, Mr. Cheston, and Miss Perkins.

Then came the eleventh year. We experienced both happiness and sadness in this year. Happiness, in that we were fortunate with our prom. We were very thrilled to see how appreciative the seniors were. We had for our theme "Some Enchanted Evening." We were very thankful to have the "Rocking Riffs" perform for us on that night. We also crowned "Miss Junior," Merle Humes. Everyone had a grand time. As is stated above, we experienced sadness this year. At the end of the school term our beloved Mrs. Michie retired. We knew that we would greatly miss her. So many of us had anticipated her being with us throughout our years at Carver. Our sponsors were Mrs. Michie, Miss Perkins, and Mr. Cheston. On a whole we were quite happy as juniors, but we were all dreaming of becoming "big-time seniors."

Then on August, 1963, our dreams came true. We entered Carver overjoyed. We realized, however, that we had lost a large number of our classmates throughout our upward struggle. This year proved to be a busy one also. Everyone began making plans for that great day of graduation. We were proud to crown Eudora Ware, "Miss Homecoming" for the years 1963-64. We only had two sponsors. They were Miss Perkins and Mr. Cheston, who we feel did a tremendous job as our advisors.

Throughout our dear years at Carver, members of our class participated in the bank, FBLA, NHA, NHS, NFA, Library Club, Newspaper Staff, Choir, and other various activities offered at Carver High.

Now that Carver has become "a thing of the past" as far as our education goes, we shall never forget it as long as we live. When we become nurses, doctors, teachers, secretaries, etc. each of us shall say, "Thanks to Carver and its dear teachers for helping to make me what I am."

by Pearl Robinison

"Farewell Dear Carver"

Ι

To our teachers, friends and classmates Now that our high school days are past and gone, While challenges rises a new; We realize we must travel on, To be worthy of praise from you.

Π

The world before us brightly lies, Yet for our future we must strive, With sad hearts, but happy eyes we dwell, And bid to Carver a sweet farewell!

III

Long will our hearts recall each joy
That gave us pleasure while we were here.
For in our hearts we won't forget
Our Good "Ole" Carver Dear.

IV

But now that we have reached our goal That point which we had longed to hold, The story now our lips must tell, To Carver's family we bid farewell.
